Aristocrat to unveil jurisdiction specific Slots at International Gaming Expo

Aristocrat Technologies has announced that it will be using next week's International Gaming Expo to showcase Aristocrat as a global gaming manufacturer by displaying games designed for Spain, Portugal, United Kingdom and South African markets.

For the first time in the UK, Aristocrat will display the new Spanish machine targeting the street market. The Spanish game line up will include three new titles including Wild Africa™, Wild Thing™ and the soon to be released Big Red™.

Aristocrat will also be showing two Portuguese games, Heart of Gold™ and 100 Lions™, and a UK game, Let's go Fish'n™. These games artwork and/or software differ to meet the specific requirements of the respective jurisdictions. South African product will also be joining the Earls Court line-up, with a mixture of XCite™, Viridian™ and LPM product. The LPM games featured in the new Series 3 cabinet will include Venice™, 50 Dragons™, Power Ball™ and Players Choice™. Players Choice is particularly exciting as it is the first multipack standalone game release. The four games featured on the Player's Choice cabinet are Big Red, 50 Lions, Indian Dreaming and Queen of the Nile.

Julie Witherby, Aristocrat's Product Manager Europe, commented: "The IGE 2009 once again positions Aristocrat as a global manufacturer committed to investing in R&D to meet the requirements of the markets. This is another example of Aristocrat's pledge to work closely with our customers in order to deliver exciting and successful gaming solutions." This International line-up, as well as many more games, will be on display at Aristocrat stand 3410.
