New Product Release

Mr WOO returns in Moonlight Market mania

Mr WOO, the Sino-Arabian adventurer introduced by Aristocrat Technologies in early 2008, is making a charismatic comeback in Europe following the release of a new XCite™-based game, the Double Standalone Progressive™ Mr WOO Moonlight Market™.

The 20-line, 10 credit ante bet game retains all the familiar and popular bonus features of the original incarnation but this time round the two jackpots are displayed on LCD screens in the top box of each machine rather than the traditional LED displays. A lowered game volatility and increased hit rate also help to maximise player interaction and excitement.

When the ante bet is played and Mr WOO is spelt across the reels, players are awarded one of five Bonus Features. The 'Jackpot Tent Feature' can be awarded at random during any bought game. In the Jackpot Tent Feature players select from 12 tents until they reveal five Mr WOO to win the Major Progressive Jackpot, four Cats for the Minor Jackpot or three Birdcages for a consolation prize of 1,000 credits.

Bonus Features offer a wealth of Eurasian intrigue with captivating mini games offering a variety of prizes including: 'Rickshaw Run' – wins of 50 to 1,000 credits are multiplied by the number of credits bet per line on the game that triggered the feature; 'Crazy Cards' – Mr WOO deals 18 cards with the player choosing four to reveal a scorecard win; 'Wild Woo' – three Free Games are awarded in which a wild W substitutes for all symbols except Camel; 'Dueling Dice' – Mr WOO throws three dice, outcomes are then multiplied with the bet per line with doubles increasing the win ten-fold and triples multiplying by 100; and 'Midnight Market' – players choose between 20, 15, 10 or 5 free games, during which the prize is multiplied when Mr WOO substitutes in a winning combination.
