Press Release

Aristocrat Europe strengthens sales team

LONDON, June 16th, 2009: Aristocrat Technologies has added to its sales representation in Europe with the appointment of Jaime Bonet to the post of Regional Sales Manager. Jaime has over five years' experience working in the gaming industry and assumes responsibility for territories including the United Kingdom, Germany, Italy, Monaco, Macedonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Gibraltar and the Isle of Man, reporting to Head of Sales for Central Europe, Pedro Extremera.

42-year-old Bonet is not only multi-lingual with English, German, French and Portuguese complementing his native Spanish and Catalan, he also boasts a wealth of experience across design, science and technology and international trade. His casino sector knowledge spans development, production and commercialisation of slot machines, online systems and casino product portfolios through to developing new strategic software and international consulting.

Commenting on the appointment, Pedro Extremera said: "Aristocrat's profile has been built around a strong portfolio of great gaming solutions and knowledgeable people. We welcome Jaime, the newest addition to our sales team, and look forward to his positive contribution to further enhancing the strong customer relationships already in place."
